JAMESPORT

Jedediah Hawkins will be a source of pride

I write this letter as a native son with a deep love for the region. I recently returned to Jamesport after years of work and travel, honing my craft and preparing for the moment I may return home and share my experiences. I am fortunate to have the privilege of pursuing my dream in a venue that may only be described as a local treasure, the restored Jedediah Hawkins Inn.

It saddens me to learn that some of the inn's neighbors have come to view the business as a burden, rather than the community asset it should be perceived as. While I am unable to speak to any of the instances related to past operations, I am happy to speak of my plans for the future.

My intentions as the new proprietor, are to forge forward and build a sustainable model of hospitality that will serve as a source of community pride for years to come. My vision is that of a country inn and restaurant that creates job opportunities, supports local agriculture and viticulture, and provides a mentoring spirit to local youth.

I humbly ask the community's support in this endeavor.

Keith Luce
chef/proprietor, Jedediah Hawkins Inn

RIVERHEAD

What amazing neighbors

Only in this great country of ours would one group of people sympathize so eloquently with another.

A sincere and grateful thank-you to all the folks at John Wesley Village for their compassionate condolences to Polish-Americans and all those identified with the Polish community on the loss of the president of Poland, his wife and cabinet members.

Every one of us is a loyal and proud American and proud of our heritage. Thank you to our neighbors at John Wesley Village for your kind words.

Irene Pendzick
past president, Polish Town Civic Association

CALVERTON

It meant a lot to us

To all the kind people who stopped to help our puppy, Sparkie, on Sound Avenue in Calverton. We want to say thank you for your compassion, kind words, a hug or even just for being there.

Thank you is not enough, but from our hearts we thank each and every one of you. May he rest in peace.
